

Live a Significant Story

Week #5: It's about your habits

Questions for Reflection/Discussion/Application -

1. Brian highlights 4 principles for living a significant story.

Begin With the End in Mind—What stories do you want told about you when you are gone?

Live EYES UP—Looking for people to server.

Live HANDS OUT—Experiencing life-giving relationships.

Live KNEES DOWN—Living dependent on God.

Rate how regularly you consciously live this way on a scale of 1 to 10 (1 = Never, 10 = Always).

2. Brian said, "One of reasons we do not live this way is because we have no created habits to live this way." Do you agree or disagree? Why?

3. Brian said, "For too long we have relied on experiences (church services, retreats, conferences) instead of habits to fuel our relationship with Jesus." Do you think he is right? Has that been your experience?

4. As you look at the 4 principles of living a significant story, what do you think would be a KEYSTONE HABIT (A habit that leads to other good habits) for each area?
