

WELCOME to Christ the King!

We're so glad you're here today. We are an evangelical, Reformed congregation of the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA), passionate about worshiping and serving the Lord together. We pray that you will be blessed today through the ministry of God's Word. If you have any questions about our church, please see Pastor Jason following the worship service or feel free to contact him throughout the week at pastorjasonCTK@gmail.com

Our MISSION & VISION

As a local church we exist for God's glory to love, worship, and serve our triune God by encouraging and equipping the people of God for the work of ministry throughout Port St. Lucie. Together we strive to do this in three ways: as we gather together, as we grow in Christ, and as we go into the world.

The Celebration of the LORD'S SUPPER

As we partake of the Lord's Supper today, we welcome all to the Table who've made a public profession of faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and are currently communing members in good standing with a Bible-believing church. If you haven't yet trusted in Christ for salvation, and/or you haven't submitted yourself to the spiritual oversight and discipline of a local church, we kindly ask that you refrain from partaking of the Sacrament.

Fellowship LUNCHEON & PRAYER Meeting

Please join us for our fellowship luncheon immediately following the morning worship service; and then as we gather together this afternoon for prayer at 3:30, before ending our Lord's Day together in worship at 4:30 this evening.

NURSERY for Infants & Toddlers

We gladly welcome children of all ages into corporate worship each week. However, we're also sensitive to the varying needs and ability of children to sit through an entire worship service. For that reason, we do provide a nursery for our younger children.

Faithful to the Scriptures. True to the Reformed Faith. Obedient to the Great Commission.

Christ the King is a proud member of the Presbyterian Church in America.

+The Confession of Faith

Westminster Larger Catechism Qs. 160&161

160. Q. What is required of those that hear the Word of God preached?

A. It is required of those that hear the Word preached, that they attend upon it with diligence, preparation, and prayer; examine what they hear by the Scripture; receive the truth with faith, love, meekness, and readiness of mind, as the Word of God; meditate, and confer of it; hide it in their hearts, and bring forth the fruit of it in their lives.

161. Q. How do the sacraments become effectual means of salvation?

A. The sacraments become effectual means of salvation, not by any power in themselves, or any virtue derived from the piety of intention of him by whom they are administered, but only by the working of the Holy Ghost, and the blessing of Christ, by whom they are instituted.

The Pastoral Prayer

The Reading of God's Law

James 1:19-27

Pastor: Know this, my beloved brothers: let every person be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger; for the anger of man does not produce the righteousness of God.

Church: Therefore put away all filthiness and rampant wickedness and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls.

Pastor: But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror.

Church: For he looks at himself and goes away and at once forgets what he was like.

Pastor: But the one who looks into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and perseveres, being no hearer who forgets but a doer who acts, he will be blessed in his doing.

Church: If anyone thinks he is religious and does not bridle his tongue but deceives his heart, this person's religion is worthless.

Unison: Religion that is pure and undefiled before God, the Father, is this: to visit orphans and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained from the world.

The Confession of Sin (Silent)

"Search me, O God, and know my heart! Try me and know my thoughts! And see if there be any grievous way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting" (Ps. 139:23-24)

The Assurance of Pardon

Romans 3:19-24

"Now we know that whatever the law says it speaks to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be stopped, and the whole world may be held accountable to God. For by works of the law no human being will be justified in his sight, since through the law comes knowledge of sin. But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from the law, although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus."

The Confession of Faith

Heidelberg Catechism Qs. 84&85

84. Q. How is the kingdom of heaven opened and shut by the preaching of the holy gospel?

- A. By proclaiming and openly witnessing, according to the command of Christ, to believers, one and all, that, whenever they receive the promise of the gospel by a true faith, all their sins are really forgiven them of God for the sake of Christ's merits; and on the contrary, by proclaiming and witnessing to all unbelievers and such as do not sincerely repent that the wrath of God and eternal condemnation abide on them so long as they are not converted. According to this witness of the gospel God will judge, both in this life and in that which is to come.

85. Q. How is the kingdom of heaven shut and opened by church discipline?

- A. By forbidding, according to the command of Christ, the use of the Sacraments by those who under the Christian name maintain un-Christian doctrines or practices; who will not, after repeated brotherly admonitions, renounce their errors and wicked course of life; and who, having been complained of to the church, or to those who are thereunto appointed by the church, despise their admonitions—by which censure they are excluded from the Christian Church, and by God himself from the kingdom of Christ; and by again receiving such as members of Christ and his church when they promise and show real amendment.
