

WELCOME to Christ the King!

We're so glad you're here today. We are an evangelical, Reformed congregation of the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA), passionate about worshiping and serving the Lord together. We pray that you will be blessed today through the ministry of God's Word. If you have any questions about our church, please see Pastor Jason following the worship service or feel free to contact him throughout the week at pastorjasonCTK@gmail.com

Our MISSION & VISION

As a local church we exist for God's glory to love, worship, and serve our triune God by encouraging and equipping the people of God for the work of ministry throughout Port St. Lucie. Together we strive to do this in three ways: as we gather together, as we grow in Christ, and as we go into the world.

The Celebration of the LORD'S SUPPER

As we partake of the Lord's Supper today, we welcome all to the Table who've made a public profession of faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and are currently communing members in good standing with a Bible-believing church. If you haven't yet trusted in Christ for salvation, and/or you haven't submitted yourself to the spiritual oversight and discipline of a local church, we kindly ask that you refrain from partaking of the Sacrament.

Fellowship LUNCHEON & PRAYER Meeting

Please join us for our fellowship luncheon immediately following the morning worship service; and then as we gather together this afternoon for prayer at 3:30, before ending our Lord's Day together in worship at 4:30 this evening.

NURSERY for Infants & Toddlers

We gladly welcome children of all ages into corporate worship each week. However, we're also sensitive to the varying needs and ability of children to sit through an entire worship service. For that reason, we do provide a nursery for our younger children.

Faithful to the Scriptures. True to the Reformed Faith. Obedient to the Great Commission.

Christ the King is a proud member of the Presbyterian Church in America.

Christ the Lord Is Risen Today

+The Confession of Faith

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day he rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

+The Doxology

No. 731

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; praise Him all creatures here below; praise Him above, ye heav'nly host praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Psalter Reading

Psalms 34:11-22

PASTOR: Come, O children, listen to me; I will teach you the fear of the LORD. What man is there who desires life and loves many days, that he may see good?

CHURCH: Keep your tongue from evil and your lips from speaking deceit. Turn away from evil and do good; seek peace and pursue it.

PASTOR: The eyes of the LORD are toward the righteous and his ears toward their cry. The face of the LORD is against those who do evil, to cut off the memory of them from the earth.

CHURCH: When the righteous cry for help, the LORD hears and delivers them out of all their troubles. The LORD is near to the brokenhearted and saves the crushed in spirit.

PASTOR: Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the LORD delivers him out of them all. He keeps all his bones and not one of them is broken.

CHURCH: Affliction will slay the wicked, and those who hate the righteous will be condemned.

UNISON: The LORD redeems the life of his servants; none of those who take refuge in him will be condemned.

The Pastoral Prayer

The Confession of Sin

Father in heaven, we thank you for the freedom you have given us through the life, death and resurrection of your Son. But we confess today that we often live like slaves. Instead of living like you delight in us, we avoid you in shame and guilt. Instead of receiving your favor as a gift, we try to earn it with our efforts. Instead of accepting your freedom, we prefer our chains. Instead of pursuing your purposes, we cling to our own selfish ambitions. Forgive us. Embrace us. Cleanse us. Heal us. We ask in Jesus' name, Amen.

The Assurance of Pardon

Rom. 6:5-11

"For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin. For one who has died has been set free from sin. Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. For the death he died he died to sin, once for all, but the life he lives he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus."

+The Confession of Faith WLC Q. 52

Q. How was Christ exalted in his resurrection?

A. Christ was exalted in his resurrection, in that, not having seen corruption in death, (of which it was not possible for him to be held,) and having the very same body in which he suffered, with the essential properties thereof, (but without mortality, and other common infirmities belonging to this life,) really united to his soul, he rose again from the dead the third day by his own power; whereby he declared himself to be the Son of God, to have satisfied divine justice, to have vanquished death, and him that had the power of it, and to be Lord of quick and dead: all which he did as a public person, the head of his church, for their justification, quickening in grace, support against enemies, and to assure them of their resurrection from the dead at the last day.
