

Hebrews 10:11–18

Discussion Guide

1. Pastor Brent used the imagery of a grand symphony to describe how the author arranges his argument about the cross in Hebrews 7–10. What are two or three of your favorite passages in this large section and why are they significant to you?
2. The author of Hebrews regularly quotes Scripture to reason with his audience. When you consider your own relationships, is there anything that you can learn from the way he used Scripture with others?
3. Do you often go in fear when you privately worship God? Why or why not?
4. If someone was considering leaving a gospel-believing church to return to a former church that doesn't preach the gospel because he or she misses former experiences, programs, or relationships, what would you say?
