

Connection Group Homework

For the week of March 1, 2015

Getting Started:

1. Tell us a funny story about a time when you had to say, NO?

The Message:

2. What insight, principle or observation from this weekend's message did you find to be most helpful, eye opening or troubling? Explain.

3. This weekend's message was on 1Corinthians 9:24-27. Go back and reread this passage. What do you remember about the context Pastor Tim shared was going on?

4. What were Pastor Tim's points with regards to what a life of discipline looks like? Discovering discipline means I will:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

5. This weekend Tim said, "The more faithful you are to your mission, the more opportunities you will have to say NO." Why would he say that? What do you think about this?

6. What were the three recommendations for "training your body for the task"?

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

My Life:

7. Out of the three points with regards to discovering discipline, which one is the most difficult for you? Why?

8. Tim mentioned that God's clear mission for us is to, "To reach everyone I possibly can with the Gospel of Jesus Christ, by being an excellent _____." If you live your life as suggested in this weekend's message, what would that look like?

9. What is the one "take home" from this weekend's message that you will commit to working on this week? (Connection group accountability next week!)
