

Connection Group Homework

For the week of September 8th & 9th, 2018

Psalm 139:23-24

Getting Started:

1. Describe your idea of the perfect day.

The Message:

2. What insight, principle or observation from this weekend's message did you find to be most helpful, eye-opening or troubling? Explain.

3. Pastor Mike gave us two specific action-steps – what were they?

4. Last weekend we read Psalm 139:19-22 and saw David declaring his hatred of wickedness. Who does David turn his attention to now? What does he want God to do?

5. According to this weekend's message, how do these two final verses fit into the rest of Psalm 139?

My Life:

6. Have you ever taken the time to consider what habits, activities or attitudes in your life might grieve God? Have you ever asked God to reveal those things to you?

7. In question 4 above we see David's humility: In verses 19-22 he declares his hatred of wickedness and then in verses 23-24, David asks God to search his heart and reveal any wickedness he might not realize is there. Would you expect this response? Or would you expect David to point out all the wickedness he sees in other people? How would you respond?

8. Do you have a trusted friend that you could give permission to speak into your life – even if what they say might be hard to hear?

9. What are some ways that we as a group might be able to hold each other accountable to actively allowing God to search our hearts?
