Titus 2:1-10

Getting Started:

1. Who is the most interesting person you've ever met and talked with?

The Message:

2. What does "sound doctrine" mean? Why is "sound doctrine" important?

3. Pastor Tim said this week that "everyone is called to be a disciple who makes disciples." How did he explain that?

4. When you read Titus 2:1-10, who is Paul instructing and what are his instructions?

5. What is the relationship between the behavior Paul is calling people to and their ability to disciple others?

6. What insight, principle or observation from this weekend's message did you find to be most helpful, eye-opening or troubling? Explain.

My Life:

7. Pastor Tim explained that sound doctrine isn't about seeing our faith as some kind of tool for self-help, but instead to see Jesus as Lord of our life. What areas in your life do you struggle to make Jesus Lord and see the Bible as the final authority?

8. When you consider the call of "being a disciple who makes disciples" who are you allowing to disciple you? Who are you disciplining?

9. If you are not doing one or both of those things, why not?

10. Why do you think God calls us to both disciple and be disciplined?
