1. Have you ever found yourself doing something in a group that you would not DREAM of doing if you were alone? Have you ever found yourself compromising your personal values or convictions “in the moment” because you were in a group who was doing something that went against those things? Did fear play any part in your participation?
2. Pastor Ronn shared some fears we often face – which of those do you find you struggle with the most?
3. Pastor Ronn gave us three specific ways we can pursue God together as a church – what were they?
4. How might you be inspired by a Christ-driven “mob-mentality”? How can you take a step this week to pursue God more intentionally than you have before?
