NEW TO CORNERSTONE?

Please don't forget to pick-up one of our welcome booklets before you leave today. In it you will find much of the information you will need to become acquainted with the ministry at Cornerstone. Thank you for visiting us today. We're very glad you're here!

FAMILY INFO

A nursery for children up to four years old is available upstairs during our worship service. We also have a well-child cry room available to the left of the fellowship hall for those who want to keep their children with them during the service. There is a comfortable chair available for nursing mothers in the downstairs women's restroom.

CONNECT

If you're here for the first time today, would you take a moment to complete this information and place it in our offering box on your way out? Thank you.

I would like:

- More information about Cornerstone
- To know more about becoming a Christian
- To attend a Connecting Luncheon

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Q1) In today's message, we learned from several examples of gospel-minded unity. Have you ever personally known someone who exemplifies this concept? What lessons did you learn from their example?

Q2) In total Ryan shared six marks of gospel-minded unity. What obstacles might a church face in hitting these marks? What can this teach us about how to pursue gospel-minded unity in our own church?

Q3) Ryan said that emotional attachment is a very healthy expression of gospel-minded unity. What limits should be placed on this concept? (Address the same question with the concept of "personal involvement.")
