FAMILY INFO

A nursery for children up to four years old is available upstairs during our worship service. We also have a well-child cry room available to the left of the fellowship hall for those who want to keep their children with them during the service. There is a comfortable chair available for nursing mothers in the downstairs women's restroom.

NOTES

Q1) In today's message we saw that if we want to be faithful to the Great Commission, then we will be intentional about proclaiming the singular message of salvation by grace through faith in Jesus Christ and not become distracted in advancing side agendas. Name some examples of common side agendas that Christians can become distracted with. How can preoccupation with these side agendas be detrimental to the advancement of the gospel? Given that the Scripture does comment on many of these corollary issues, to what degree should the Christian be focused on them? What level of attention should they receive in the church and why?

Q2) In today's message we also saw that if we want to present the gospel with clarity, then we will substantiate the message with the testimony of our life. What are some examples of characteristics that demonstrate the truth of our message (through the Spirit's indwelling presence), and what are some practical ways that Christians can live out these characteristics?

Q3) Based on today's message, why is it especially important that we, in our area, have a clear grasp of what the Scripture does/doesn't say concerning the gospel?
