

Main point - Let us not sin because it is not who we are

- 1 - Review the gospel in Romans 1-5
- 2 - Union with Christ
- 3 - Conversion to Christ

#1 :

“To convince those in whom sin evidently has the dominion that such indeed is their condition...(and) to satisfy some that sin does not have the dominion over them, notwithstanding its restless acting itself in them and warring against their souls... unless this can be done, it is impossible they should enjoy solid peace and comfort in this life.”

“God is love, and his law reveals both the image in which he created us and the image into which he is recreating us. Law describes loving well. It is not cold, legalistic, threatening, and impersonal. It is warm, humane, desirable, personal. God’s law describes how full humanness operates when walking free. It pictures how wisdom perceives and acts. It casts a vision for what we are becoming under the gentle, firm hand of our Savior’s grace.”

#3 :

“A Christian man is a perfectly free lord of all, subject to none. A Christian man is a perfectly dutiful servant of all, subject to all.”

Martin Luther
