

Main point: An invitation to have fellowship with God in Jesus Christ

- 1 - We must know the truth
- 2 - We must be transformed
- 3 - We must treasure Christ

#1 :

“This passage contains a humbling picture of what human nature is capable of doing in religion. It is one of those scriptures which ought to be frequently and diligently studied by all who desire the prosperity of the church of Christ.”

Is. 55:1       “Come, everyone who thirsts,
                  come to the waters;
                  and he who has no money,
                  come, buy and eat!
                  Come, buy wine and milk
                  without money and without price.

#3:

“It is my exhortation...to all Christians to maintain their Christian freedom by constant watchfulness. You must not be tempted or threatened out of it; you must not be bribed or frightened from it; you must not let either force or fraud rob you of it...We must not give up ourselves to the opinion of other men, though they be never so learned, never so holy, merely because it is their opinion...”

Samuel Bolton

#4:

“There is nothing in us or done by us at any stage of our earthly development because of which we are acceptable to God...We must always be accepted for Christ’s sake, or we cannot ever be accepted at all.”

#5:

“Jesus by His death turned aside the wrath of God from us by taking it upon Himself. As He hung on the cross, He bore our sins in His body and endured the full force of God’s wrath in our place...Because of Christ’s death in our place, God’s justice is now completely satisfied. God can now, without violating His justice or His moral law, forgive us freely, completely and absolutely. He can now extend His grace to us (give us the gift of righteousness); He can show favor to those who, in themselves, deserve only wrath.”
