

#1 :

How sweet to be outdone, overcome, and overwhelmed by the astonishing grace of the Lord our God.”

- Charles Spurgeon

Teach me your way, O Lord, and lead me on a level path because of my enemies.
Psalm 27:11

#3 :

“It may seem, on a superficial observation, as if David used here too many words. But they will judge quite otherwise, who understand the natural coldness of the human heart, its lukewarmness in the praise of God, its forgetfulness and unthankfulness, and the inclination of the lazy mouth to silence.”

- E. W. Hengstenberg

#4 :

“Divine intervention without the response of declarative praise destroys God’s design. God has plans for his people, and those plans provide amazing acts on their behalf. Through it all God desires expressions of praise and thanksgiving because praise will edify and change others.”

- Allen Ross

#5 :

“It means his mercy is not calculating and cautious, like ours. It is unrestrained, flood-like, sweeping, magnanimous. It means our haunting shame is not a problem for him, but the very thing he loves most to work with. It means our sins do not cause his love to take a hit...It means on that day when we stand before him, quietly, unhurriedly, we will weep with relief, shocked at how impoverished a view of his mercy-rich heart we had.”

Bob Kauflin
Psalm 40

- Dane Ortlund

“We praise, not because the present is easy, but because the future is glorious.”

- Christopher Ash

#7 :

Consequently when Christ came into the world, he said, “Sacrifices and offerings you have not desired, but a body have you prepared for me; in burnt offerings and sin offerings you have taken no pleasure. Then I said, ‘Behold, I have come to do your will, O God, as it is written of me in the scroll of the book.’

Hebrews 10: 5-7
