Main point : Experience fellowship with God in the Psalms of David

- 1 - The Lord wants you to love the Psalms
- 2 - The Lord wants you to be influenced by his instructions
- 3 - The Lord wants Psalm 1 and all the Psalms to lead you to Christ

“The Psalter ought to be a precious and beloved book, if for no other reason than...it might well be called a little Bible. In it is comprehended most beautifully and briefly everything that is in the entire Bible.”

“The book of Psalms teaches people how to communicate with God, to express their emotions, to live well, to understand God’s kingdom, and to worship him rightly, all in a world where evil still lingers and where Yahweh’s universal reign is not yet fully manifest on earth as it is in heaven.”

John Crutchfield

#3 :

Psalms 18:3-7

I call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised,
and I am saved from my enemies.

The cords of death encompassed me;
the torrents of destruction assailed me;

the cords of Sheol entangled me;
the snares of death confronted me.

In my distress I called upon the LORD;
to my God I cried for help.

From his temple he heard my voice,
and my cry to him reached his ears.

Then the earth reeled and rocked;
the foundations also of the mountains trembled and quaked, because he was angry.

#4 :

“Just as the pleasures of the world are awakened by looking at them long enough, so the pleasures of God’s truth are awakened in the born-again soul by fixing our hearts and mind on Scripture – day and night.”

John Piper
