Matthew 5:28

But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lustful intent has already committed adultery with her in his heart. If your right eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away. For it is better that you lose one of your members than that your whole body be thrown into hell.

#2:

“What amazes God about humanity is not its sinfulness and propensity for evil but its hardness of heart and unwillingness to believe in him. That is the greatest problem in the world...”

#3:

“(For the first 30 years of his life) Our Lord was not ashamed to work with his own hands. There is something marvelous and overwhelming in the thought! He who made heaven, and earth, and sea, and all that there is – he, without whom nothing was made that was made – the Son of God himself, took on him the form of a servant, and ‘in the sweat of his face ate bread,’ as a working man....Though he was rich, yet for our sakes he became poor. Both in life and death he humbled himself, that through him sinners might live...”

Romans 1:19

For what can be known about God is plain to them, because God has shown it to them. For his invisible attributes, namely, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly perceived, ever since the creation of the world, in the things that have been made. So they are without excuse.

#5:

“Never had any place on earth such privileges as Nazareth. For thirty years the Son of God resided in this town and went to and fro in its streets. For thirty years he walked with God before the eyes of its inhabitants, living a blameless, perfect life. But it was all lost on them. They were not ready to believe the gospel, when the Lord came among them, and taught in their synagogue. They would not believe that one whose face they knew so well, and who had lived so long, eating, and drinking, and dressing like one of themselves, had any right to claim their attention. They were ‘offended at him.’”

Prov. 4:23

Keep your heart with all vigilance,
for from it flow the springs of life.

#7:

“It is the greatest wisdom in the world to observe the first motions of the heart, and to check and stop sin there. The motions of sin are weakest at first; a little care and watchfulness may prevent much mischief now which the careless heart not heeding, is brought within the power of temptation.”
