

Main point - Trust in the Lord's promises for a safe and peaceful life

1. God's promises to those who trust him
2. The God in whom we trust
3. The people who trust in God

#1:

"It enters a house men know not how, and its very breath is mortal; yet those choice souls who dwell in God shall live above fear in the most plague-stricken places."

Charles Spurgeon
The Treasury of David

#2:

"The fact is, of course, God is gracious and generous to all who are his children...The Bible is full of God's promises to provide for us spiritually and materially, to never forsake us, to give us peace in times of difficult circumstances, to cause all circumstances to work together for our good, and finally to bring us safely home to glory. Not one of those promises is dependent upon our performances. They are all dependent on the grace of God given to us through Jesus Christ."

Jerry Bridges
Transforming Grace: Living Confidently in God's Unfailing Love

#3:

"All God's promises depend upon Christ alone. This is a notable assertion and one of the main articles of our faith. It depends in turn upon another principle – that it is only in Christ that God the Father is graciously inclined toward us. His promises are the testimonies of His fatherly good will towards us. Thus it follows that they are fulfilled only in Christ...We are incapable of possessing God's promises till we have received the remission of our sins and that comes to us through Christ."

John Calvin

#4:

Isaiah 26:3

You keep him in perfect peace
whose mind is stayed on you,
because he trusts in you.
