Main Point: The Old Testament Tabernacle was designed to show, imperfectly, and not completely, God’s desire to dwell with His people as well as their separation from Him. But it also pointed to a time of perfect communion with God that would come through Jesus Christ.

1. The details tell us something: the Tabernacle as a physical representation of spiritual realities. (Verses 1-5)

A. The _____ (Exodus 25:23-30)

-Points to the Messiah? (John 6)

B. The _____ (Exodus 25:31-40)

-Points to the Messiah? (John 1:4)

C. The _____ (Exodus 30:1-6)

-Points to the Messiah? (John 17:20-21)

2. The central place of “Atonement” in the Tabernacle (verses 6-10)

-The Tabernacle was designed to point to our _____ and need of _____ to God.

-Hebrews 9:9-10, Hebrews 10:1, Hebrews 10:11

-The Tabernacle also pointed _____.

-Hebrews 10:11-14

3. “Not Yet” ... “But When” (Hebrews 9:11-12)

-Before, the way was _____, now it is _____ because of Christ.

-Before, our consciences were _____, now they are _____.

-Before, there was uncertainty about our _____,

now there is _____.
