Acts Introduction | God's Witnesses Fueled by His Spirit

Dr. Sam Tyson, Teaching Pastor

Central Truth: In order to prepare for our study through the book of Acts, we must embrace that the Holy Spirit moves through God's people in powerful ways to accomplish His mission to reach others and make disciples.

How can we have a solid foundation for studying the book of Acts?

- Essential Questions: Who? When? Where? Why? How?
- Overview of the Book
 - ◇ Introduction: What led to the spread of the Gospel (1:1- 2:41)
 - ◇ Mission to the Jewish Church (2:42- 12:24)
 - ◇ Mission to the Non-Jewish World (12:25- 28:31)

How can we prepare our hearts to see God move through our time in this book?

- We realize that the Holy Spirit is the main character and will build the church and spread the gospel no matter the obstacle or opposition.
- We celebrate the truth that God allows us to participate in His plan to bring the hope of Christ to others.
- We rejoice that God calls us to pray boldly together and will move in mighty ways to fulfill His mission.
- We take heart that God has complete authority over all things and will care for His people through it all.
