

Easter Sunday- Acts 2:22-41- "He is Risen, How will you Respond?"

Central Truth: We cling to the truth of Resurrection because through this miracle God gives everlasting hope that overcomes anything this life can bring and gives us true and everlasting hope as we respond to Him.

Why must we cling to the truth of the resurrection today?

- God's perfect plan is greater than the wickedness of sin.
- God did not abandon us, but instead He rescues us from disaster.
- God provides amazing hope as He rules the world as King of Kings.

How should we respond to what God has done?

- 1) Realize your brokenness which should lead you to repent.
- 2) Receive God's precious gift as you respond to His call.
- 3) Long for revival that God can bring.
