Amazing grace, how sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me!

I once was lost, but now am found, was blind, but now I see.

The Lord has promised good to me, His word my hope secures;
He will my shield and portion be, as long as life endures.

Yea, when this flesh and heart shall fail, and mortal life shall cease;
I shall possess within the veil, a life of joy and peace.

When we've been there ten thousand years, bright shining as the sun;
We've no less days to sing God's praise than when we first begun!

Battle Hymn of the Republic
arr. Peter Wilhousky

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord;

He is trampling out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored.

He hath loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible swift sword;

His truth is marching on!

Glory, Glory, Hallelujah!

His truth is marching on!

I have seen Him in the watch-fires of a hundred circling camps;

They have builded Him an altar in the evening dews and damps.

I can read His righteous sentence by the dim and flaring lamps;

His day is marching on!

In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born across the sea,

With a glory in His bosom that transfigures you and me.

As He died to make men holy, let us die to make men free,

While God is marching on!

Doxology | Song of praise in response to God's favor

Song of Response

You Say
arr. Heather Sorenson

Westminster Academy Girls' Ensemble

Pauline Baxter, Rachel Castillo, Noelle Gregoriou,

Jhailynn Jacques, Ciana Ruocco, Elena Vanden Berge

I keep fighting voices in my mind that say I'm not enough

Ev'ry single lie that tells me I will never measure up

Am I more than just the sum of ev'ry high and ev'ry low

Remind me once again just who I am because I need to know oo oh

You say I am loved when I can't feel a thing
You say I am strong when I think I am weak
You say I am held when I am falling short
And when I don't belong oh You say I am Yours
And I believe oh, I believe what You say of me, I believe
The only thing that matters now is ev'rything You think of me
In You I find my worth, in You I find my identity
Taking all I have and now I'm laying it at Your feet
You'll have ev'ry failure God, You'll have ev'ry victory

Benediction

PASTOR'S GREETING

Welcome to online worship at Coral Ridge Presbyterian Church. We are truly living in uncertain times. However, Jesus says, "Do not let your hearts be troubled." How could He say such a thing in the midst of a world full of pain and suffering? Does He have an answer to comfort a troubled heart?

In fact, Jesus gives us the only antidote when He says, "Believe in God; believe also in me." Jesus is calling us to believe in the One who was dead, but is now alive. If the resurrection is true, He alone has the power to redeem any circumstance. Jesus can work through anything that life has thrown your way. The world's answer is to believe in yourself. But that doesn't seem to offer any real hope. On the contrary, Jesus tells us to stop believing in yourself and instead believe in Him. This is real hope in a hopeless world.

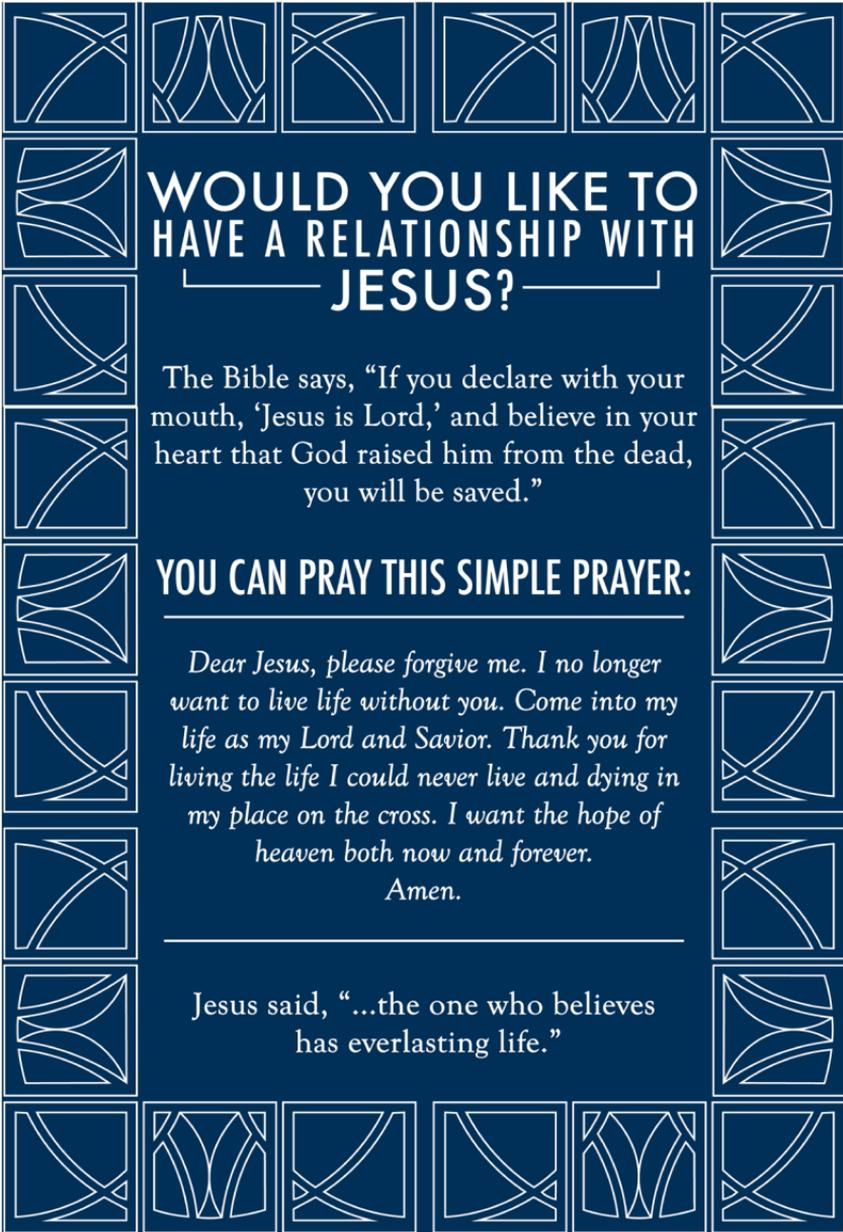

So whether you've been a Christian for years or you're exploring who Jesus is, I pray you are encouraged by this good news. Please let me know how Coral Ridge can serve you in the days and weeks ahead!

Forever Hopeful,

Rob Pacienza, Lead Pastor

WOULD YOU LIKE TO HAVE A RELATIONSHIP WITH JESUS?

The Bible says, "If you declare with your mouth, 'Jesus is Lord,' and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved."

YOU CAN PRAY THIS SIMPLE PRAYER:

Dear Jesus, please forgive me. I no longer want to live life without you. Come into my life as my Lord and Savior. Thank you for living the life I could never live and dying in my place on the cross. I want the hope of heaven both now and forever.

Amen.

Jesus said, "...the one who believes has everlasting life."

SIXTY YEARS of CORAL RIDGE

From its beginnings, Coral Ridge Presbyterian Church has placed a strong emphasis on Christian Education. By the late 1960s, Coral Ridge was known around the country for its many programs, from training of the laity in theology and evangelism to helping children develop a biblical worldview. In November of 1969, Coral Ridge's Sunday School was chosen by Christian Life Magazine as the most outstanding Sunday School in America.

With the increasing need for a college preparatory school in Fort Lauderdale that held a solid biblical worldview, in 1971 Coral Ridge established Westminster Academy, a K-12 school. The spirit of the Protestant Reformers and their quest to educate their covenant children for the glory of God would continue on through Westminster Academy. The school's first days were held at the Pompano Race Track, but soon an additional five acres of land were purchased next to the church property on Federal Highway for a school facility. Today, Westminster Academy continues to operate as the largest ministry of Coral Ridge. Nationally recognized with award-winning academics, competitive athletics, and fine arts, WA is made up of faculty and staff who are "devoted to Christ and dedicated to excellence."

By the late 1980s, with a vision to rekindle a reformation in our own time and take the transforming truth of Jesus Christ to the world, Coral Ridge founded Knox Theological Seminary to train pastors and laypersons in a graduate school of theology. Knox Seminary opened its doors in September of 1990. Today, Knox operates as a separate 501(c)(3) on the Coral Ridge campus.

From Generation to Generation, Christian Education is a piece of our story.

Each month during our 60th anniversary we will highlight a piece of our story.
