

JESUS PAID IT ALL

I hear the Savior say,
"Thy strength indeed is small.
Child of weakness, watch and pray,
Find in Me thine all in all."

[Chorus]
Jesus paid it all,
all to Him I owe;
Sin had left a crimson stain,
He washed it white as snow.

Lord, now indeed I find
Thy pow'r, and Thine alone,
Can change the leper's spots
And melt the heart of stone.

And when, before the throne,
I stand in Him complete,
"Jesus died my soul to save,"
My lips shall still repeat.

Oh praise the one who paid my debt
And brought this life up from the dead!

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

THE LORD'S SUPPER

We are to remind one another of the importance of the death of Christ until he returns. The Lord's Supper was instituted by Christ himself and so we regularly share in it together.

Remembering

At Jesus' last meal with his disciples he broke bread, called it his "body" and gave it to his disciples and said "do this in remembrance of me."

Receiving

Jesus says that the cup we drink is the cup of "the new covenant in my blood". In the new covenant we receive forgiveness through Jesus' sacrifice on the cross and the Holy Spirit who motivates us and enables us to live in joyful obedience to Christ.

Waiting

The early church regularly observed this meal as a way of actively waiting for Christ's return. The Apostle Paul writes to the Corinthian church "For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes."

CHRIST THE SURE AND STEADY ANCHOR

Christ, the sure and steady anchor
In the fury of the storm
When the winds of doubt blow through me
And my sails have all been torn.
In the suffering, in the sorrow,
When my sinking hopes are few,
I will hold fast to the anchor;
It shall never be removed.

Christ, the sure and steady anchor
While the tempest rages on,
When temptation claims the battle
And it seems the night has won;
Deeper still then goes the anchor
Though I justly stand accused;
I will hold fast to the anchor;
It shall never be removed.

Christ, the sure and steady anchor
Through the floods of unbelief;
Hopeless somehow, O my soul,
Now lift your eyes to Calvary.
This, my ballast of assurance;
See His love forever proved;
I will hold fast to the anchor;
It shall never be removed.

Christ, the sure and steady anchor
As we face the wave of death,
When these trials give way to glory,
As we draw our final breath;
We will cross that great horizon,
Clouds behind and life secure,
And the calm will be the better
For the storms that we endure.

Christ, the shore of our salvation,
Ever faithful, ever true;
We will hold fast to the anchor;
It shall never be removed.

HOW RICH A TREASURE WE POSSESS

How rich a treasure we possess, in Jesus Christ our Lord
His blood our ransom and defense, His glory our reward
The sum of all created things, is worthless in compare
For our inheritance is Him, whose praise angels declare

And how free and costly was the love,
displayed upon the cross
While we were dead in untold sin,
the Sovereign purchased us
The will of God the Father, demonstrated through the Son
The Spirit seals the greatest work,
the work which Christ has done

[Chorus]

For Yours is the Kingdom, and the power,
and the glory
Yours is the Kingdom, and the power,
and the glory
Yours is the Kingdom, and the power,
and the glory
Amen

How vast and measureless the flood of mercy unrestrained
The penalty was paid full, the spotless Lamb was slain
Salvation what a priceless gift received by grace through faith
We stand in robes of righteousness,
we stand in Jesus' name

COME YE SINNERS

Come, ye sinners, poor and needy,
weak and wounded, sick and sore;
Jesus ready stands to save you,
full of pity, love, and power.

I will arise and go to Jesus!
He will save me from my sin.
By the riches of his merit,
there is joy and life in him.

Come, ye thirsty, come and welcome,
God's free bounty glorify;
true belief and true repentance,
ev'ry grace that brings you nigh.

Come, ye weary, heavy laden,
lost and ruined by the fall;
if you tarry till you're better,
you will never come at all.

View Him praying in the garden
On the ground your Maker lies
On the bloody tree behold Him
Sinner will this not suffice

Lo the incarnate God ascended
Pleads the merit of His blood
Venture on Him venture wholly
Let no other trust intrude

THE APOSTLES' CREED

Pastor:

Christians, what do you believe?

Congregation:

I believe in God, the Father almighty,
Maker of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church*,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

meaning the universal Christian church — all believers in Jesus Christ*
