Question 1 - What is our only hope in life and death?

belong

to

God

That we are not our own but belong body and soul, both in life and death, to God and to our Savior Jesus Christ.

God

is the creator

God is the creator and sustainer of everyone and everything.

Question 3 - How many persons are there in God?

3

three persons

There are three persons in the one true and living God: the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. They are the same in substance, equal in power and glory.

live to his

glory

God created us male and female in his own image to know him, love him, live with him and glorify him. And it is right that we who were created by God should live to his glory.

P

by his powerful word

God created all things by his powerful Word, and all his creation was very good; everything flourished under his loving rule.

NEW CITY CATECHISM

Question 6 - How can we glorify God?

by enjoying him

We glorify God by enjoying him, loving him, trusting him, and by obeying his will, commands, and law.

NEW CITY CATECHISM

Question 7 - What does the law of God require?

obedience

love

God

Personal, perfect, and perpetual obedience, that we love God with all our heart, soul, mind, and strength; and love our neighbor as ourselves. What God forbids should never be done and what God commands should always be done.

10

no other gods

You shall have no other gods before me. You shall not make for yourself an idol. You shall not misuse the name of the LORD your God. Remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy. Honor your father and your mother. You shall not murder. You shall not commit adultery. You shall not steal. You shall not give false testimony. You shall not covet.

NEW CITY CATECHISM

Question 9 - What does God require in the first, second and third commandments?

know

and trust

God

First, that we know and trust God as the only true and living God. Second, that we avoid all idolatry and do not worship God improperly. Third, that we treat God's name with fear and reverence, honoring also his Word and works.

NEW CITY CATECHISM

Question 10 – What does God require in the fourth and fifth commandments?

Fourth, that on the Sabbath day we spend time in public and private worship of God, rest from routine employment, serve the Lord and others and so anticipate the eternal Sabbath. Fifth, that we love and honor our father and our mother, submitting to their godly discipline and direction.

worship of God

NEW CITY CATECHISM

Question II - What does God require in the sixth, seventh and eighth commandments?

purely

and faithfully

Sixth, that we do not hurt or hate or be hostile to our neighbor, but be patient and peaceful, pursuing even our enemies with love. Seventh, that we live purely and faithfully. Eighth, that we do not take without permission that which belongs to someone else.

we are content

Ninth, that we do not lie or deceive but speak the truth in love. Tenth, that we are content, not envying anyone or resenting what God has given them or us.

N

No

mere human is able

Since the fall, no mere human has been able, to keep the law of God perfectly, but consistently breaks it in thought, word, and deed.

All of creation
is fallen

No, but because of the disobedience of our first parents, Adam and Eve, all of creation is fallen; we are all born in sin and guilt, corrupt in our nature and unable to keep God's law

NEW CITY CATECHISM

Question 15 – Since no one can keep the law what is its purpose?

law

also teaches

That we may know the holy nature and will of God, and the sinful nature and disobedience of our hearts, and thus our need of a Savior. The law also teaches and exhorts us to live a life worthy of our Savior.

sin is rejecting
God

Sin is rejecting or ignoring God in the world he created, rebelling against him by living without reference to him, not being or doing what he requires in his law—resulting in our death and the disintegration of all creation.

trusting in things

Idolatry is trusting in created things rather than the Creator for our hope and happiness, significance, and security.

NEW CITY CATECHISM

Question 18- Will God allow our disobedience and idolatry to go unpunished?

just
judgement

No, every sin is against the sovereignty, holiness, and goodness of God, and against his righteous law, and God is righteously angry with our sins and will punish them in his just judgment both in this life, and in the life to come.

NEW CITY CATECHISM

Question 19- Is there any way to escape punishment and be brought back into God's favor?

Yes, to satisfy his justice, God himself, out of mere mercy, reconciles us to himself and delivers us from sin and from the punishment for sin, by a Redeemer.

mere mercy

Lord
Jesus
Christ

The only Redeemer is the Lord Jesus Christ, the eternal Son of God, in whom God became man and bore the penalty for sin himself.

NEW CITY CATECHISM

Question 21 – What sort of Redeemer is needed to bring us back to God?

truly human truly God

One who is truly human and also truly God.

NEW CITY CATECHISM

Question 22 – Why must the Redeemer be truly human?

obey

suffer

sympathize

That in human nature he might on our behalf perfectly obey the whole law and suffer the punishment for human sin; and also that he might sympathize with our weaknesses.

NEW CITY CATECHISM

Question 23 – Why must the Redeemer be truly God?

That because of his divine nature his obedience and suffering would be perfect and effective; and also that he would be able to bear the righteous anger of God against sin and yet overcome death.

perfect
effective

NEW CITY CATECHISM

Question 24 – Why was it necessary for Christ the Redeemer to die?

deliver us

Since death is the punishment for sin, Christ died willingly in our place to deliver us from the power and penalty of sin and bring us back to God. By his substitutionary atoning death, he alone redeems us from hell and gains for us forgiveness of sin, righteousness, and everlasting life.

NEW CITY CATECHISM

Question 25- Does Christ's death mean all our sins can be forgiven?

YES

our sins

no more

Yes, because Christ's death on the cross fully paid the penalty for our sin, God graciously imputes Christ's righteousness to us as if it were our own and will remember our sins no more.

NEW CITY CATECHISM

Question 26- What else does Christ's death redeem?

renewal of every part

Christ's death is the beginning of the redemption and renewal of every part of fallen creation, as he powerfully directs all things for his own glory and creation's good.

NEW CITY CATECHISM

Question 27 – Are all people, just as they were lost through Adam, saved through Christ?

elected

united

No, only those who are elected by God and united to Christ by faith. Nevertheless God in his mercy demonstrates common grace even to those who are not elect, by restraining the effects of sin and enabling works of culture for human well-being

sentence

At the day of judgment they will receive the fearful but just sentence of condemnation pronounced against them. They will be cast out from the favorable presence of God, into hell, to be justly and grievously punished, forever.

faith in Jesus
Christ

Only by faith in Jesus Christ and in his substitutionary atoning death on the cross; so even though we are guilty of having disobeyed God and are still inclined to all evil, nevertheless, God, without any merit of our own but only by pure grace, imputes to us the perfect righteousness of Christ when we repent and believe in truth

gospel

Faith in Jesus Christ is acknowledging the truth of everything that God has revealed in his Word, trusting in him, and also receiving and resting on him alone for salvation as he is offered to us in the gospel.

Apostles
Creed

Everything taught to us in the gospel. The Apostles' Creed expresses what we believe in these words: We believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. The third day he rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

R declared, growing righteousness

Justification means our declared righteousness before God, made possible by Christ's death and resurrection for us. Sanctification means our gradual, growing righteousness, made possible by the Spirit's work in us.

NEW CITY CATECHISM

Question 33 – Should those who have faith in Christ seek their salvation through their own works, or anywhere else?

Christ is the only

No, they should not, as everything necessary to salvation is found in Christ. To seek salvation through good works is a denial that Christ is the only Redeemer and Savior.

NEW CITY CATECHISM

Question 34 – Since we are redeemed by grace alone, through Christ alone, must we still do good works and obey God's word?

Yes,
because Christ

Yes, because Christ, having redeemed us by his blood, also renews us by his Spirit; so that our lives may show love and gratitude to God; so that we may be assured of our faith by the fruits; and so that by our godly behavior others may be

NEW CITY CATECHISM

Question 35 – Since we are redeemed by grace alone, through faith alone, where does this faith come from?

through the Holy Spirit

All the gifts we receive from Christ we receive through the Holy Spirit, including faith itself.

Question 36 - What do we believe about the Holy Spirit?

he is

God

That he is God, coeternal with the Father and the Son, and that God grants him irrevocably to all who believe

Question 37 – How does the Holy Spirit help us?

desire

obey

The Holy Spirit convicts us of our sin, comforts us, guides us, gives us spiritual gifts and the desire to obey God; and he enables us to pray and to understand God's Word.

pouring out our hearts

Prayer is pouring out our hearts to God in praise, petition, confession of sin, and thanksgiving

Question 39 – With what attitude should we pray?

S

humble

submission

With love, perseverance, and gratefulness, in humble submission to God's will, knowing that, for the sake of Christ, he always hears our prayers.

The whole Word of God directs and inspires us in what we should pray, including the prayer Jesus himself taught us.

whole word of God

Your Kingdom

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Question 42 – How is the Word of God to be read and heard?

diligence

preparation

prayer

With diligence, preparation, and prayer; so that we may accept it with faith, store it in our hearts, and practice it in our lives.

signs
seals

The sacraments or ordinances given by God and instituted by Christ, namely baptism and the Lord's Supper, are visible signs and seals that we are bound together as a community of faith by his death and resurrection. By our use of them the Holy Spirit more fully declares and seals the promises of the gospel to us

Baptism is the washing with water in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit; it signifies and seals our adoption into Christ, our cleansing from sin, and our commitment to belong to the Lord and to his church

washing with water

NEW CITY CATECHISM

Question 45 – Is baptism with water the washing away of sin itself?

N

No, only the blood of Christ and the renewal of the Holy Spirit can cleanse us from sin.

No, only
the blood of Christ

Christ commanded all Christians to eat bread and to drink from the cup in thankful remembrance of him and his death. The Lord's Supper is a celebration of the presence of God in our midst; bringing us into communion with God and with one another; feeding and nourishing our souls. It also anticipates the day when we will eat and drink with Christ in his Father's remembrance of him

No, Christ
died once
for all

No, Christ died once for all. The Lord's Supper is a covenant meal celebrating Christ's atoning work, as it is also a means of strengthening our faith as we look to him, and a foretaste of the future feast. But those who take part with unrepentant hearts eat and drink judgment on themselves.

NEW CITY CATECHISM

Question 48 – What is the church?

community

God chooses and preserves for himself a community elected for eternal life and united by faith, who love, follow, learn from, and worship God together. God sends out this community to proclaim the gospel and prefigure Christ's kingdom by the quality of their life together and their love for one another ruling

kingdom

Christ rose bodily from the grave on the third day after his death and is seated at the right hand of the Father, ruling his kingdom and interceding for us, until he returns to judge and renew the whole world.

Christ
triumphed

Christ triumphed over sin and death by being physically resurrected, so that all who trust in him are raised to new life in this world and to everlasting life in the world to come. Just as we will one day be resurrected, so this world will one day be restored. But those who do not trust in Christ will be raised to

NEW CITY CATECHISM

Question 51 – Of what advantage to us is Christ's ascension?

Christ physically ascended on our behalf, just as he came down to earth physically on our account, and he is now advocating for us in the presence of his Father, preparing a place for us, and also sends us his Spirit.

advocating for us

NEW CITY CATECHISM

Question 52 – What hope does everlasting life hold for us

new city

new heaven

new earth

It reminds us that this present fallen world is not all there is; soon we will live with and enjoy God forever in the NEW CITY, in the NEW HEAVEN and the NEW EARTH, where we will be fully and forever freed from all sin and will inhabit renewed, resurrection bodies in a renewed, restored creation.
