

Discussion Questions:

1- Is anyone familiar with the claim that there are modern day Apostles? Do you think Scripture supports the stance that are modern day Apostles? What would some of the implications of modern Apostles be?

2-Do you think God gives people the power to heal others at will, presently, or do you think that now God heals in response to our prayers? State your reason for either conclusion.

3-Which of the gifts that we covered today do you believe you've seen in action?
