

QUESTIONS part 1:

A- "Only do what only you can do." What are the things in your life that only YOU can do? Focus on those!

B- What are the things in your sphere of leadership that you could train someone else to do? As a Christian, think about making new disciples. What is your plan to teach someone else and send them out as a new disciple maker?

C- What area of your leadership do you struggle with a Lone Ranger mentality?

QUESTIONS part 2:

A- What is your method of listening and learning? (Podcasts, books, one-on-one discipleship relationships)

B- What are the top 3 resources that you are listening and learning from right now? Share them with someone else to help them in their journey as well.

C- Can you identify an area of you life and leadership that has grown in the past 6 months?

QUESTIONS part 3:

A- What are the top 3 characteristics you look for in people to assess their leadership potential? A desire for you to add them to your team?

B- The RIGHT people are your greatest asset, and the WRONG people are your greatest liability. Can you give an example of how that's played out in your life and leadership?

QUESTIONS part 4:

A- As you look back in your life, can you identify a time where you gave up too quickly? What did it cost you in the end?

B- When things get hard in leadership, how do you stop from giving up? Burning out? Quitting when things get tough?