LEARN

Read any of the following primary passages from Sunday: Psalm 19, Romans 1:18-23, 2 Timothy 3:15-17, 2 Corinthians 4:3-6. What stands out about God's Word in those passages or form Sunday's sermon as helpful, encouraging, or challenging?

Why is it important that we recognize creation speaks (declares, proclaims) of the glory of God? How is our Christian life diminished if we don't regularly recognize it?

What does Romans 1:18-23 teach us about basic human knowledge of God and our guilt before God?

What makes the Bible truly the Word of God? What should Christians ultimately rely on to have solid assurance it is true?

PRACTICE

When did you come to see the glory of God in the written Word of God? Did it come quickly upon being saved or was it gradual? Share testimonies of God's Spirit demonstrating to your heart the truthfulness of the written Word.

How can the gospel be increasingly on your mind these days? What encouragement do you have for one another to continue looking into the glories of the gospel for renewal and hope and joy?

How can you begin preparing your heart to enjoy Christmas this year, amidst many changes, challenges and trials? What are you planning to read or do to cultivate joy at Christ's coming?

CHANGE

As men/women, share one way you need God to help you see the glory of the gospel in the face of Jesus Christ. Is it in the assurance of forgiveness? The reality of his power by the Spirit to defeat sin? The peace your heart needs? Endurance and joy in trials? Share and pray together.
