
Radical Compassion
Mark 1:40–45
November 24, 2013

Introduction

I. The Leper's humility. Mark 1:40

II. The radical compassion of Christ. Mark 1:41–42

III. The healing of the leper illustrates our condition and need.

IV. The healed man disobeys Christ's command. Mark 1:43–45

Questions for reflection:

- Christ models radical compassion in healing the unclean leper. How have you experienced Christ's compassion?
- How can I display Christ's amazing compassion for others?
- How does the miraculous healing of the leper serve as an illustration of spiritual realities?
- Can you think of an example of when a person might be tempted to justify their disobedience to God's commandments today?
