
*Go To the Ant
Proverbs 6:6–11
October 19, 2014*

Introduction:

- I. Description of a sluggard. Proverbs 6:9–11, 19:24, 22:13

- II. Work is a spiritual activity. Proverbs 13:4; Exodus 20:9–11

- III. Consider the ant. Proverbs 6:6–8

- IV. Work creates additional messes. Proverbs 14:4

- V. The rewards of diligence. Proverbs 10:4, 22:29

Questions for reflection:

- What values or beliefs does the world hold concerning work?
 - What things should motivate us to be better workers?
 - How is God a model for us as laborers?
 - Given that Christians have a high view of work/vocation, how does the concept of rest fit in?
