Jeremiah 29:11

Dear Seniors,

I want to first say thank you to David Howle. His heart and dedication to the seniors at EBC has been remarkable. He has been the true definition of a shepherd.

A shepherd's primary responsibility is the safety and welfare of the flock. Some flocks may include as many as 1,000 sheep. The shepherd will graze the animals, herding them to areas of good forage, and keeping a watchful eye out for poisonous plants. If you put yourself in place of a sheep, you can see how David has done all of these things for you in his forty seven years of ministry!

David has taught me a lot about ministering to senior adults. He hasn't specifically sat me down and taught me through speech, but as I have watched him minister to you, my knowledge has grown immensely. I am honored to have been asked to lead you in the Senior Adult ministry at Edgewood. Since I came back to Columbus seven years ago, you all have been a precious part of my life. I am pleased to say that Brother David will not be fully stepping out of his role as I will not let him!! I told Carole that I was going to pick him up and have him visit with me on occasion. It would also be a sin to hold him back from preaching different times throughout the year! Please pray for God's hand upon you and this ministry. I am looking forward to serving our Master and Lord with you in the new year! In His Love, Andy Johnston
