Discussion Question From Psalm 100

1. Start your time by asking people to share where they went and what they did for the Thanksgiving Holiday.
  - Were there any special memories or significant conversations that made Thanksgiving special this year?
2. Read Psalm 100 in several different versions of the Bible. Don't hurry, let the words sink in.
  - What are some ways that the author says we can express our "thanks" to God? (1-2)
  - What are some of the ways that you worship and express your thanks and love for God?
3. What are some of the reasons that the author says that we should have a thankful heart?
  - Compare: Psalm 139:13-16 / Psalm 23 / Psalm 95:6-7
  - Share some of the reasons why you love God and why you frequently give thanks to Him.
4. Look closely at the words that the author uses to describe God in verse 5.
  - Re-read verse five in several different versions.
  - How do these characteristics of God motivate you to express your thanks to Him?
5. Ask each person in your group to share something specific that they will do this week as an expression of their love and thanksgiving to God.
