Guiding Principles for Sound Decision Making

1. Seek counsel.
2. Consider the circumstances wisely.
3. Avoid making emotionally-driven decisions.
4. Recognize the power of peer pressure.
5. Don't let uncertainty paralyze you.

Discussion Questions:

1. What big decision(s) have you recently made? How did you feel during the process?
2. Read Proverbs 3:5-6; 19:20, and 27:1. Consider the five guiding principles for sound decision making. Have you noticed any of these principles lacking in our society during the pandemic? If so which ones and how?
3. Which of the guiding principles do you feel particularly strong in?
4. Which of the guiding principles would you like to develop much more?
