Discussion Questions:

1. Read Exodus 3:7-12 and 2 Corinthians 12:9. Consider the following statement from Sunday's message, "It isn't about what you can do; it's about what I can do through you. It isn't about what you bring to the table. It's about what I want to do in your life and through your life. If you could do this on your own, it wouldn't be that spectacular. It would just be an ordinary day." How have you seen this in your own life?
2. Read Exodus 4:10-11. God was calling Moses to be a leader, and Moses didn't see it. What does this tell us about our view of leadership and God's view?
3. Pastor Michael Hinton shared the following words in Sunday's message, "Never is your spiritual maturity determined more than when your focus is upon other people, and never is that tested more than when you begin to serve others and make an impact for the kingdom of God." Share how you've experienced both aspects in your own life.
4. We learned from Sunday's message that God is not as interested in our ability as He is in our availability. In what area(s) of your life would you like to be more available to be used by God?
