Discussion Questions:

1. What has God been teaching you during our nation's turmoil over racial injustice?
2. Read Matthew 5:10-12. In Sunday's message, we learned the importance of the following rule of proper Bible interpretation: Before we consider the "here and now," we must always begin with the "then and there." Why is this important?
3. In this passage, who were the ones being persecuted? Why were they being persecuted? Who were the ones doing the persecuting?
4. How does this beatitude apply to us in the 21st century here in the western world? Consider Matthew 25:34-40.
