

Mercy: Explained, Experienced, Extended
Matthew 5:7
May 17, 2020

Discussion Questions:

1. Read Matthew 5:7. To be merciful is to show forgiveness and compassion to those in need. Share a specific example of how you've experienced God's mercy recently.
2. Read Jonah 4:1-2. Jonah was angry at God because he knew that God would show compassion on the City of Nineveh. Can you think of a recent situation (personal or in the news) that has upset you? How does Jonah 4:11 help to put things in perspective?
3. How can you extend mercy to someone in need this coming week? What tangible steps can you take to ensure that mercy will be extended?