

Peacemakers in a World of Conflict

Matthew 5:9

May 31, 2020

Discussion Questions:

1. What feelings have you experienced in recent weeks with all the turmoil that our nation has gone through?
2. Read Matthew 5:9. The peace that Jesus speaks of in this verse is not merely the absence of conflict. It's the presence of God in the midst of conflict. Is there a conflict that you are currently facing that you might be able to share with your group?
3. Read Romans 5:1 and 5:10. For those of us who have been reconciled, God is calling us to be peacemakers. How will you be a peacemaker this week in the midst of all the unrest and uncertainty?