

Thankful in All Things
Romans 8:28
November 22, 2020

Discussion Questions:

1. Read Romans 8:28. "All things" includes the good and the bad, the easy and the difficult. Share an example of something good and something bad that you experienced in 2020.
2. The words "work together" in Greek (synergei) is where we get our English word synergy. The definition of synergy is: The cooperation of two or more agents to produce a combined effect greater than the sum of their separate effects. What does this tell us about our experiences throughout the course of the year?
3. Share one or two things you're thankful for about our church.
4. "The good" is ultimately God's glory, and our part in God's glory is to be conformed to the likeness of Jesus Christ. Share one specific way that you'd like to be conformed to the likeness of Jesus Christ this coming week.
