Discussion Questions:

1. What table manners or other “rules of etiquette” did you learn in your home as a child? Did any of them differ from those of your friends? If so, please share.
2. Read 1 Corinthians 11:17-34. Social divisions began to form in the Church at Corinth during the weekly love feasts. How can we guard against this in our church?
3. During Sunday’s message, we learned that the bread reminds us of the newness of life, the spiritual nourishment that Jesus provides, and our unity in the body of Christ. We also learned that the cup reminds us that we’ve been redeemed, that our sins have been covered, and that we’ve been reconciled. Take some time to share which of these aspects are especially significant to you and why.
4. Food can bring encouragement in so many different ways. What tangible way can you encourage someone else at church this week through food?
