Discussion Questions

1. Read Galatians 3:23-4:7. Verses 28-29 tell us that we are all positionally one in Christ. This doesn't mean that we shouldn't celebrate our differences (e.g. ethnicity, culture, gender, age, etc.). In what ways are you encouraged by the diversity within our church? Share any specific examples.
2. There's a difference between our spiritual position in Christ and our spiritual condition in Christ. When a sinner gives his life to Christ, he is declared positionally righteous. At the same time, he is conditionally still a spiritual infant. New believers need spiritual milk to grow (1 Peter 2:2). If you are a relatively new Christian, in what practical ways can you grow spiritually? If you have been a maturing Christian for many years, how can you help others grow spiritually?
3. Our church is comprised of many ministries. Often times, this means we are so busy taking care of own ministries that we don't think about the other ministries. How can God use you to help our church "work together for the family win"?
4. In what ways can you extend grace to those around you this week?
