A Mighty Fortress Is Our God

A mighty Fortress is our God,
A Bulwark never failing;
Our Helper He amid the flood
Of mortal ills prevailing;
For still our ancient foe
Doth seek to work us woe;
His craft and power are great,
And, armed with cruel hate,
On earth is not his equal.

Did we in our own strength confide,
Our striving would be losing;
Were not the right Man on our side,
The Man of God's own choosing:
Dost ask who that may be?
Christ Jesus, it is He;
Lord Sabaoth His Name,
From age to age the same,
And He must win the battle.

And though this world, with devils filled,
Should threaten to undo us,
We will not fear, for God hath willed
His truth to triumph through us:
The Prince of Darkness grim,
We tremble not for him;
His rage we can endure,
For lo! his doom is sure,
One little word shall fell him.

That word above all earthly powers,
No thanks to them, abideth;
The Spirit and the gifts are ours
Through Him who with us sideth:
Let goods and kindred go,
This mortal life also;
The body they may kill:
God's truth abideth still,
His Kingdom is forever.

Psalm 119:113-120 (Samekh stanza to the tune of "Amazing Grace")

All double-minded ones I hate,
But love Your law I've heard.

You are my hiding place and shield;
My hope is in Your word.

Depart from me, all evil ones;
I keep my God's commands.

Sustain me in Your promises;
My life is in Your hands.
And let me not be put to shame,
Because I hope in Thee.

Uphold me that I may be saved,
And cherish Your decrees.

You cast away the wand'ring ones who from Your statutes stray.
For their deceitfulness is vain,
And useless is their way.

You discard wicked ones like dross,
Therefore, I love Your law.

My flesh trembles for fear of You,
Your judgments create awe.
