

WINTER CONFERENCE 2019
Taking Hold

Pastor Mark Fritchman

Sunday 9am | January 13

Take Hold of Your Marriage

Signs and Steps to Get Back from the Drift:

Hebrews 2:1 ESV

For this reason we must pay much closer attention to what we have heard, or else we will drift away from it.”

Signs that You are Drifting:

1. Not paying attention/Apathy
Our sin nature will always pull us away from the relationship.

Signs that You are Drifting:

1. Not paying attention/Apathy
2. Not being intentional

If it's not a priority, other things will get in the way.

Signs that You are Drifting:

1. Not paying attention/Apathy
2. Not being intentional
3. Not being honest/making excuses

*“This is just the season
we are in.”*

The background is a blue-tinted aerial photograph of a grassy field. A winding path or road is visible, cutting through the grass. The overall tone is a deep, monochromatic blue.

If the grass looks greener, it's time to water your own grass.

How do you get back from the drift?

1. Pay attention to your location

Be honest

Be humble

How do you get back from the drift?

1. Pay attention to your location
2. Pay attention to what you've heard

What are you listening to?

Who are you listening to?

How do you get back from the drift?

1. Pay attention to your location
2. Pay attention to what you've heard

Are the culture/media/friends giving solid Biblical Advice?

How do you get back from the drift?

1. Pay attention to your location
2. Pay attention to what you've heard

Is God's Word affecting you?

Are you getting Biblical Counsel?

How do you get back from the drift?

1. Pay attention to your location
2. Pay attention to what you've heard
3. Drop your anchor

Not drifting takes work.

Make this Declaration:
Divorce is not an option for us.
We have to find another way.

Hebrews 6:19-20

We have this as a sure and steadfast anchor of the soul, a hope that enters into the inner place behind the curtain, where our forerunner, Jesus, has entered on our behalf...
