Proverbs 3: 21 ~ 24

21 My son, don't let them slip from your eyes; hold on to sound judgment and discretion. 22 They will be life for your whole being, and an ornament for your neck. 23 Then you will walk safely on your path, and your foot won't stumble. 24 If you lie down, you won't be terrified. When you lie down, your sleep will be pleasant

WE ARE BACK IN OUR SANCTUARY AT 11am!! For those who are still not comfortable being in person, the morning service will be on Zoom and posted to the website, YouTube and Facebook. We will be having worship music for morning service, but the CDC still says no singing, so let’s all decide to sing in our hearts together, making a sweet, sweet sound in His ears. We also ask that you enter through the front double doors wearing your masks, stay 6’ away from others not in your immediate family, and we ask that you refrain from gathering in groups to visit inside the church. We will be dismissing back rows first and ask that you use the side Sanctuary exit door.

Make sure to take advantage of all our website has to offer, whether it’s attending our Men’s or Women’s Bible studies, our Wednesday evening prayer time at 6:30pm, or the many current sermon series and archived sermons that are available at www.fbcnewman.org.

Pray as the Lord continues His work in Boston. Pray that we let go of our own personal preferences and follow His call – full surrender and sacrificially. Pray from 02/21 – 02/27
