

People Over Politics | October 11, 2020 Whose Side Are You On?

1) What is the most frivolous argument you've ever gotten into?

Read Joshua 5

2) What do you notice from the text? Do you have any questions?

3) List examples from the text of how the Israelites had a special relationship with God.

4) Does the way the commander of the LORD's army answers Joshua surprise you? Why or why not? What is the significance of his words? What do his words mean for us today?

5) Think about a person with whom you profoundly disagree. How does it make you feel to think that the Lord is neither on your side or theirs?

6) How can we handle disagreements in a way that honors the Lord? What are some good ground rules for the way that we treat others, especially those with profound political differences?

7) Read Ephesians 4:2. Does anything need to change in the way that you think or act (or post?)
