

A PASTOR'S PLEADING FOR HIS FLOCK

O Lord!

Stir up Glen Iris Baptist Church.

Burden us over our sin!

Move us by Your Spirit to repentance.

Crush our pride and lack of true spiritual desire.

Pull down the altars of our imaginations and idols of our own making.

Displace all other rivals.

Turn us! Turn us, O Lord, and we will be turned.

May the goodness of God lead us to repentance.

Show us our sin—reveal its putridness.

Unveil its sordidness.

Let us see it for what it is—from your perspective—how you truly see it.

Search us, O God, and know our hearts.

Cause us to search ourselves.

Raise the questions we should ask.

Show us Your grace, and then may we extend it to others.

Do not leave us alone to our own devices—or we will go back to broken cisterns, and feed upon empty husks—and we will never know the difference, if left to ourselves.

Deal with us as Your people, Lord—

Save those among us who have an empty profession, or a false profession.

Knock the flimsy props out from under their shallow, useless experience,
And give instead true contriteness and repentance and conversion.

Convert them, O Lord, and convict the unconcerned—disturb the self-satisfied and give a season of revival, refreshing, and rejoicing to Your people.

O I beg it, Father, in the name of Your Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, and because of His perfect, finished work, and by the Holy Spirit whose power causes all these requests to be answered.

In Jesus' Name, Amen.
