

*Him that cometh unto me,
I will in no wise cast out.*

— J O H N 6 : 3 7 —

Is there any instance of our Lord's casting out one who comes to Him? If there is, we would like to know of it; but there has not been one, and there never will be. Among the lost souls in hell, there is not one who can say, "I went to Jesus, and He refused me." It is not possible that you or I would be the first to whom Jesus would break

His Word. Let us not entertain so dark a suspicion.

Suppose we go to Jesus now about the evils of today. Of this we may be sure: He will not refuse us audience or cast us out. Those of us who have often been, and those who have never gone before, let us go together, and we will see that He will not shut the door of His grace in the face of any one of us.

"This man receiveth sinners" (Luke 15:2), but He repulses none. We come to him in weakness and sin, with trembling faith, small knowledge, and slender hope; but He does not cast us out. We come by prayer, and that prayer broken; with confession, and that confession faulty; with praise, and that praise far short of His merits; but yet He receives us. We come diseased, polluted, worn out, and worthless; but He "will in no wise cast [us] out." Let us come again today to Him who never casts us out.
