

"And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered."

JOEL 2:32

Why do I not call on His name? Why do I run to this neighbor and that, when God is so near and will hear my faintest call? Why do I sit down, devise schemes, and invent plans? Why not at once roll myself and my burden upon the Lord? The best runner is straightforward; why do I not run at once to the living God? I look for deliverance in vain anywhere else; but with God I will find it; for here I have His royal "shall" to make it sure. I do not need to ask whether I may call on Him or not, for that word "whosoever" is a very wide and comprehensive one. "Whosoever" means me, for it means anybody and everybody who calls upon God. I will therefore follow the leading of the text, and at once call upon the glorious Lord who has made so large a promise.

My case is urgent, and I do not see how I am to be delivered; but this is no business of mine. He who makes the promise will find out ways and means of keeping it. It is mine to obey His commands; it is not mine to direct His counsels. I am His servant, not His solicitor. I call upon Him, and He will deliver me.
