

DECLARATION OF AN INTERCESSOR

PART 2

1. I am done with small praying. No more near-sighted, "my-own-backyard" praying. I commit to press outward in my concentric circles of prayer.
2. Time is too short for playing church, business as usual, living by sight, selfish desires, and lip-service. I am done with no-dreams, no-vision, no-sacrifice.
3. I renounce fleshly planning, propaganda, pep, program, promotion, popularity, pettiness, and misplaced priorities.
4. I will not march to the drummer of the world, not even the religious world.
5. My prayer time will not be mediocre, compromised, nibbled away, diluted, detoured, derailed, deluded, delayed, or devoid of power.
6. I will not flinch in the face of the enemy, nor negotiate at his table, nor believe any of his lying propaganda, nor fall for his diversionary schemes, nor be frustrated with his annoyances.
7. I may not be recognized, regarded, or rewarded by men, but my exceeding joy will be the "Well done, thou good and faithful servant" of my Lord.
8. I will live by faith, walk persevering, pray travailing, praise absolutely and aggressively, and labor with His power where He is already working.
9. I will keep short accounts with God and with man. I will pay any price to stay on holy ground to see the glory of God poured out.
10. My face is set. My pace is relentless. The road is narrow. The way may be rough.
11. My companions may be few, but my mission is clear.
12. My God has won, and I am on the winning side. I will press on pressing through in prayer till Jesus comes again in glory.
