Embracing the Other (Part 1)

Embracing the Other

"...we have found that in submitting to our own divinely assigned gender roles that we discovered one of God's great gifts for getting in touch with our deepest selves, as well as entering into the Great Dance of the universe."

IN THE IMAGE OF GOD HE CREATED HIM
MALE AND FEMALE HE CREATED THEM
GENESIS 1:27

- DISTINCT "If our gender is at the heart of our nature [and it is], we risk losing a key part of ourselves if we abandon our distinctive male and female roles."

The Dance of the Trinity

"If it was not an assault on the dignity and divinity (but rather led to the greater glory) of the Second Person of the Godhead to submit himself, and assume the role of a servant, then how could it possibly injure me to be asked to play out the 'Jesus role' in my marriage?"

THE MEANING OF MARRIAGE

The "dance of the Trinity" –
"...the relationship of the Father and the Son is a pattern for the relationship of the husband to wife."

Jesus
Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be used to his own advantage; rather, he made himself nothing by taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to death-- even death on a cross!
Philippians 2:6-8

THE MEANING OF MARRIAGE

But What About Headship

"...authority and leadership mean that you become the servant; you die to self in order to love and serve the Other. Jesus redefined all authority as servant-authority."

But What About Headship

"Both women and men get to 'play the Jesus role' in marriage—Jesus in his sacrificial authority, Jesus in his sacrificial submission."

Embracing the Other

"Men and women are not interchangeable, unisex beings, but they have different strengths that result in men and women solving problems, building consensus, and performing leadership functions in distinct ways."

Embracing the Other

Women have a gift
of interdependence,
a "receiving" gift.

They are inwardly
perceptive.

They nurture.

Men have a gift of independence, a
"sending" gift.

They look outward.

They initiate.

Embracing the Other

"Marriage is a full embrace of the other sex. We accept and yet struggle with the gendered 'otherness' of our spouse, and in the process, we grow and flourish in ways otherwise impossible."
