Sermon Title: The Answer of Consolation

Topic: Our Sovereign King

Text: Psalm 110:1-3

“This is a prophetic messianic royal psalm that describes a descendant of David who would not only be his son but his Lord. This descendant would be both a king and a priest. David was a prophet, and in this Psalm, he revealed new information from God concerning the future. Such a prophetic message is an oracle.”

The company of obedient, sacrificial and committed believers, which are characterized as an army, who are arrayed in royal priesthood garb. God's chosen elect are like the mysterious dew drops upon the earth in early morning. These are they that have been mysteriously born again, born from above and born anew into the kingdom through the womb of the Gospel. And the company of the Kings People are Great: A number that no man can number. Ex 19:6/1 Peter 2:9/Eph 6:14-18/Rom 12:1-2
