

Hello Saints,

We will begin a venture in working on strategies, to assist our families to work through the very dangerous, and abhorrent policies that stifle legitimate educational opportunities, as well as a sound and biblical worldview.

The videos below will put you in contact with a cadre of men and women that will excel your knowledge of the events we cannot avoid. I will be addressing some of these tonight!

Blessings PJ

The NEW YORK TIMES MAGAZINE “The 1619 Project”

Produced once again to highlight Systemic and Stifling RACISM.

The main Author – Nikole Hannah-Jones – African American, is severely challenged for being forewarned about historical facts she alleged, that were factually not true, for which she still inserted in the work. The project has received serious challenges by many experts and scholars for its acknowledged inaccuracies.

The PROBLEM

It is being massed produced for schools so that once again not only will divisions along race lines continue but also error in facts... And unless one follows the biblical principles you only get one side of the alleged story. – Prov. 18:17

An Oppression Narrative is the FUTURE AGENDA of the state

Totally rejecting the celebration of achievement of Blacks and others which is called progress in order to continue their GRIEVANCE agenda.

In order:

- To excuse the present failures of African Americans
- To disavow personal responsibility for self-growth
- To press for MORE reparations
- To Destroy the Beauty of what's good about America

It is the premise for a Marxist welfare state in operation.

Parents will have to RISE above the VICTIM status and strengthen their children.
