

Ecclesiastes: The Quest for Meaning Application Questions

Part 9

Ecclesiastes 11:1 – 6

1. How would you describe yourself when it comes to taking risks in life? Are you
  - A risk-taker?
  - Overly-cautious?

What evidence would you point to in your life to support your choice?

2. How do you use wisdom in your life in evaluating and taking risks?
3. How does taking risks for God and his purposes differ from taking risks related to worldly things?
4. Is there anything you feel like God has prompted you to do that you are holding back on or not doing due to fear or uncertainty?
5. If there were no restrictions or limitations, what would you want to do in serving God in your Christian life?
