Benediction

"Jesus is the Son of God. He is man; yet the man of universal significance, not because his humanity is in any sense infinite, but because it is the humanity of God. He was born, baptized, tempted, and transfigured. He beheld the city and wept over it, he was agonized in Gethsemane, he was betrayed, arrested and condemned. He was flogged, crucified, dead and buried. He is our propitiation, our ransom price, our redemption, our savior, and our salvation. He suffered for our sins, and in him God provides and becomes the atonement which he demands. In Him, God dealt with our sins. He rose from the dead. He will judge the living and the dead. He will come again. He reigns." – Donald McLeod, The Person of Christ
